SENATOR BEREUTER: So there's nothing special about the placement on line 13 ... line 12 the fact that you're repeating the same phrase twice instead of just slipping in "agricultural" in front of "commercial".

SENATOR BURROWS: Well this is the way it was drafted. I decided to just take it the way the Drafters put it in.

SENATOR BEREUTER: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly, did you wish to be heard on the amendment to the amendment?

SENATOR KELLY: Yes sir, Mr. President. We have a game going here. We have Senator Warner, Fowler, Dickinson, Rasmussen, Murphy--the fighting men or our organization. We see the spirit of love moving through the group where- by they're going to love this bill to death. This may be their strategy, but it could be that we'll all get hooked in the games that may be played.

Industrial development bonds is what we're talking about and expanding those into commercial operations. Now if feedlots, feedmills and agriculture is not commercial in this day and age what is commercial? Selling silk stockings?

Be reasonable gentlemen. If you oppose 667, oppose it like the fighting men that you are. Don't attempt to be lovers that you are not.

PRESIDENT: There's been a call for the previous question. Do I see five seconds? I do. The question is shall debate now cease. Record your vote. This is on the amendment to the amendment. Have you voted on this proposition? Well it's to cease debate on the amendment to the amendment. The question is shall debate now cease. Have you voted? Record.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 14 nays to cease debate.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. President, members of the body. I certainly appreciate Senator Kelly's remarks that we are fighters instead of lovers, but I don't think he's the judge that can exactly tell us which we are, at least I hope not.

Mr. President, members of the body. I certainly agree with Senator Burrows. All Senator Goodrich is trying to do is to muddy the waters. Agriculture is our number one state. Let's see who's for it and who's against it. If this is such a good bill, as Senator Goodrich says, and will bring so much money and industry to this state let's expand it to make darn sure that agriculture, as it is, is included in very plain language. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis.
